Hotel William Gray Introduces Luxurious Urban Spa in Old Montreal

MONTREAL, QC – September 19, 2017 – Hotel William Gray, a unique boutique hotel in Old Montreal, has officially opened its luxurious spa. With a wide range of refined services, 10 treatment rooms, a thermal circuit, relaxation spaces and innovative experiences, Spa William Gray is committed to providing the utmost level of relaxation.

The intimate 5,600 sq. ft. Spa William Gray is located on the lower level floors of the historic Maison Edward William Gray and Maison Cherrier buildings.

Spa William Gray offers rejuvenating services devoted to the nurturing of mind, body and soul, and is the first in Canada to introduce the high-end German Gharieni spa beds and equipment such as the hot Quartz bed and the Spa Wave sound therapy system. Furthermore it is one of the first to offer a herbal sauna and a Himalayan salt room.

The spa stands out by its thermal circuit that includes a Finnish sauna, a steam room, experiential showers, a cold room, an herbal sauna, a Himalayan salt room, and an outdoor pool. Guests will be truly re-energized, whether stopping by for a power nap or full day spa package.

Additional services include full amenity changing rooms, complimentary bathrobes and sandals, refreshments and snacks, books and magazines, as well as valet parking.

Spa guests also have access to the products used in signature treatments at Spa William Gray's retail shop, which includes coveted products Comfort Zone and Intraceuticals.

Hotel guests have the option of in-room and balcony spa services, in addition to overnight and multiple day packages.

The spa menu and packages will soon be found in further detail on spawilliamgray.com
